Hillsborough Celebrates 250 Years at Family Fun Day!

Hillsborough Township's 250th anniversary celebration and Family Fun Day was a rousing success! Between the games and prizes, bouncy attractions, live music, delicious food, and, of course, a colorful and exciting fireworks display, a good time was had by all.

Storm Debris Removal

The Auten Road Facility will be open Saturday, July 10th from 7am until 3:30 pm for storm debris only. Proof of residency required. No registration necessary.

Please note this is for storm related debris only.

Girl Scouts at Family Fun Day

On Saturday, June 26th, Hillsborough Girl Scout volunteers participated in the Independence Day Fireworks Celebration and Hillsborough Family Fun Day by hosting a hands-on craft for kids while they waited for the fireworks show to start. Dozens of children made American flag suncatchers for 4th of July and were able to take the free craft home.

Are you interested in joining this awesome organization? For more information, please complete this quick form to learn how you can start this amazing journey with your daughter.

Girls from Kindergarten through High School are eligible. Also check out different ways for adults to volunteer, be a troop leader or work with other adults to make our Girl Scout community possible.

Girl Scouts wishes Hillsborough a happy and prosperous 250th birthday. This is indeed a historic milestone - a milestone few have reached.

Tax Rate Reduced in Township's 2021 Adopted Municipal Budget Municipal Taxes

Hillsborough Township adopted the 2021 municipal budget at the June 22nd Township Committee meeting, with a tax reduction and a taxpayer savings of $792,424. "Hillsborough saw no reduction in revenue, despite the COVID-19 Pandemic, unlike many surrounding municipalities," stated CFO Nancy Costa.

"This budget is the direct result of our dedicated staff. For Hillsborough to not have any revenue reduction, even during the pandemic, is no small feat. Fiscal responsibility is evidenced by our prudent spending and that deviation of all our employees regarding municipal operations," stated Mayor Shawn Lipani.
